Thank you for considering Bancroft Catering for your upcoming event. Please feel free to call or email if you have any questions or would like to make any changes to this proposal.

Event Terms & Conditions

- I Bancroft Catering agrees to provide food, beverage, and serviceware for the number of guests specified above. If event attendance is higher than the count specified above and Bancroft Catering provides food, beverage, and/or serviceware for those guests the patron will be billed for the extra guests at the above rate.
- I The event may begin at or after the scheduled start time and the event must have ended by the scheduled end time. If the event goes over the designated time, the patron will reimburse Bancroft Catering for any overtime wages incurred as your quoted price includes service for the designated time only. These overtime hours will be billed at $30 per hour per staff member, a one (1) hour minimum applies to all staff members.
- I The timing of food preparation is designed to have food service begin at the above designated time. If food service is delayed, Bancroft Catering will not guarantee the quality of your food. Also, overtime charges for labor may apply at the above stated rate.
- I Your menu price includes, if indicated, service staff sufficient for your event as determined by the standards of Bancroft Catering. If you require additional staffing beyond that deemed sufficient, additional staffing charges will apply. Also, if in the course of your event you or your representative request service that was not originally proposed above, additional staffing charges may apply.
- I Your menu price is based on the estimated guest count that you have provided and may include discounts based on volume. If your guest count decreases at any time, your menu price may be subject to change at that time.
- I Please note that the above menu pricing is current as of 10/8/2015, but may be subject to change. Due to the changing nature of seasonal food costs, Bancroft Catering cannot guarantee pricing more than ninety (90) days in advance of an event.
- I Any and all catering for the event will be provided by Bancroft Catering. No other caterers are permitted without the permission of the catering director. Specialty cakes are excepted from this requirement.
- I Bancroft Catering may, at the discretion of the catering director, allow limited storage of event related articles at the Bancroft Hotel for a period not to exceed two business days prior to and/or following the event date. Any articles that are left at the Bancroft Hotel in excess of this time period will be disposed of. This includes any alcohol that the client may provide for the event.
- I Bancroft Catering will not assume any responsibility for damage or loss to any of client's merchandise or articles prior to, during, and/or following the event.
- I The patron may request in writing that the catering director reschedule an event reservation. The catering director may, at her sole discretion, agree to a rescheduling request, provided that the date is available and subject to fees determined by the catering director.

Receipt of this proposal does not confirm an event reservation. In order to confirm this event, please sign below and return a copy of this proposal to Bancroft Catering. By signing the client also indicates their acceptance of Bancroft Catering's Terms and Conditions as outlined above.
